

2020 NATIONAL OUTDOOR BOOK AWARDS

INTRODUCTION

The National Outdoor Book Awards (NOBA) is a non-profit educational program sponsored by the NOBA Foundation, the Association of Outdoor Recreation and Education, and Idaho State University. Its purpose is to recognize and encourage outstanding writing and publishing in the outdoor field. Books may be nominated for awards in one of ten categories.

ELIGIBILITY

1. General Eligibility. Eligible works include full length books with subject matter related to outdoor adventure activities, i.e. mountaineering, rock climbing, kayaking, rafting, canoeing, hiking, mountain biking, backpacking, skiing, exploration, fishing, sailing, and other related, primarily non-motorized, outdoor activities. Works dealing with nature, natural history, or the environment are also eligible and should be entered in the appropriate category. Books must be written in English.
2. Release Dates. To be eligible for the 2020 National Outdoor Book Awards, nominated books should be newly published and must have been released (date of first shipment of books) after June 1, 2019 and before September 1, 2020, except for those titles which have been nominated for the Outdoor Classic Award.
3. Outdoor Classic Award. One special award (The Outdoor Classic Award) will be made annually to outdoor books of unusual and lasting significance in the outdoor field. Books nominated for the Classic Award must have been originally copyrighted prior to 2010 and still be in print.
4. Revised Editions. Revised editions are only allowed in the Instructional and Guidebook categories. The following restrictions apply:
 - 1) the new edition must be significantly updated;
 - 2) the copyright year must have been updated; and,
 - 3) the revised edition must meet the "Release Dates" requirement above.
5. Edited Works. All books, except those entered in the Design and Outdoor Classic categories, must be the work of one or two authors. Edited collections and anthologies with multiple authors are not acceptable.
6. Nominations. Book nominations may be submitted by publishers or authors.
7. Deadlines. Nominated books are accepted starting in June of 2020. The final deadline to receive books and entry forms is Thursday, August 20, 2020.
8. Limits. There is no limit to the number of books an author or publisher may submit.
9. Eligibility Disputes. In the event of a dispute as to eligibility, the judges will decide whether a book is eligible, and their decision will be binding.
10. Previous Winners. No entry will be ineligible because its author has previously won the National Outdoor Book Award or any other award.
11. Judges Decisions. Decisions made by the judging panel and the NOBA Governing Committee will be final.
12. Confidentiality. All work of the judging panels and the Governing Committee is confidential.

ENTRY OF BOOKS

1. Number of Copies. Eight (8) copies of each nominated title should be submitted. Books should be in final finished form. Soft or hardbound versions are acceptable. Manuscripts, proofs, galleys or ebooks are not acceptable. (Note, we usually require one additional book to be displayed at the AORE National Outdoor Conference, but that's not necessary this year since the conference will be held virtually.)
2. Entry Forms. One National Outdoor Book Awards Entry Form should accompany the eight copies of the nominated book being submitted. Entry forms and books must be received no later than August 20, 2020.

2020 National Outdoor Book Awards

3. Application Fee. An $85.00 application fee should accompany each nominated title.
4. Multiple Category Entries. A single title may be entered in more than one category, but each extra category entered requires a separate application form, eight review books, and an $85 application fee.
5. Central Office. Send the entry form, books and application fee to: Ron Watters, Chairman, National Outdoor Book Awards, 921 South 8th Ave., Stop 8128, Idaho State University, Pocatello, ID 83209
